We consider the sum of coefficients which are in the Dirichlet series expansion of symmetric square $L$-functions. I will talk about two estimates of this sum in weight and level aspect. These imply two estimates of the sum of the $n^2$-th Fourier coefficients of cusp forms.